7 THINGS I WANT TO SEE AT TEXAS HAUNTER'S CONVENTION 2019

JULY 18, 2019 2 COMMENTS

Before I head off on another spooky California adventure, I'm Halloweening a bit closer to home: at the inaugural Texas Hunter's Convention, to be exact.

Texas Hunter's Convention 2019 takes place in the Dallas area at the Mesquite Convention Center Saturday, July 27 and Sunday, July 28. In 35,000 square feet of spooky space, you'll find family-friendly vendors, events, demonstrations and classes for Halloween and cosplay enthusiasts.

I'm excited to have a Halloween-specific convention to check out in the TX! You'll find me wandering Texas Hunter's Convention on Saturday, July 27, and here are the seven things I'm looking forward to most.

7 THINGS I WANT TO SEE AT TEXAS HAUNTER'S CONVENTION:

1. CREEPY PASTA STORYTIME

While I'm not well-versed in the Creepy Pasta universe, I find it fascinating and hope to stop by for a chance to hear MrCreepyPasta himself tell a scary story or two.

2. FEAR APP

I've always loved scavenger hunts. Using the Fear App, convention-goers will navigate the convention floor using augmented reality to search for clues and solve a puzzle. There is even a version for kids as well as adults!

3. TAROT AND PENDULUM READINGS

Did you know adults have access to free tarot and pendulum readings with admission? Such a fun feature! Be sure to stop by The Fickle Witch Mysticism's space to get your reading, done on a first come, first serve basis.

4. ASYLUM KREATIONS

I always love wandering vendor booths at these types of events. Asylum Kreations looks to have lots of fun decor to make your home a little more spooky, like themed candles, ornaments and more.

5. THE CURIOSITEER

Jewelry always catches my eye, and I love the unique pieces The Curiositeer, out of Austin, puts together from cameo necklaces to stunning crystal pendants.

6. GHOULISH GARMENTS

Need a new Halloween skirt? Ghoulish Garments is the stop for you! I can't wait to explore this booth and all the goodies it holds.

7. YOU!

I love attending these events because it gets all of us off social media and the chance to meet face-to-face in real life. If you're attending Texas Hunter's Convention too, please be sure to say hello if you see me (tall blonde, glasses, pink-tipped hair...I'm hard to miss) - I'll have some Halloween treats for you!

And honestly, that barely scratches the surface. Texas Hunter's Convention has 20 make-and-take classes, 16 events and demos, more than 70 celebs and a ton of killer vendors.

Check out the full weekend schedule!

I'm just excited for the whole thing. I bought full weekend VIP tickets without even checking if I had anyone that wanted to go with me. I plan to spend the weekend just taking it all in, taking classes, shopping...pretty much anything I can do!
